

James Lowell Hakl

November 6, 1938 - July 28, 2025

It is with deep sorrow that we announce the passing of James Lowell Hakl, who departed this life on July 28, 2025 in his home surrounded by his loving family. He was 86 years old.

James was born on November 6, 1938 in Sacramento, CA. He was a devoted husband, loving father and grandfather. He was also known for his kindness, dedication and sense of humor.

For 30 years, he worked at Lockheed Martin aircraft and he was remembered with a heart of gold among his co-workers. He also served our country with honor in the United States Airforce. His strong work ethics, problem solving and excellence earned him respect alongside his comrades.

James is survived by his beloved wife Mercedes Hakl, stepson Christian and wife Rosalyn, stepdaughter Christina, and grandsons Rian and Gabriel.

“ I worked with Mr.Haki as his caregiver for 2 years. I enjoyed listening to his life experiences and stories. He would pass the time watching Western movies and Christian tv channels. I will forever remember him for his love of iced tea and daschound dogs.
