

James D. Hallowell

July 25, 1933 - January 31, 2024

James Davidson Hallowell was born to Dennis and Doretta (Johnson) Hallowell on July 25, 1933 in Brawley, California. He passed away peacefully, surrounded by his loving wife and family at their home on January 31, 2024.

James married his high school sweetheart, Coke Smith on February 14, 1957. Together, they lovingly raised their children Joell and Elise. He was the proud owner of Hallowell Chevrolet until his retirement in March of 2000.

James will be missed by his wife Coke Hallowell; his children Joell Hallowell and Elise Moir; and by his grandchildren Taylor and Alden Moir.

A private family memorial service has been held.

In honor of James, the family encourages remembrances be sent in his honor to the San Joaquin River Parkway, 11605 Old Friant Road, Fresno, CA 93730 or to the Fresno Art Museum, 2233 N First St, Fresno, CA 93703.

“ Kathleen and I send condolences to Coke and Family. James was one of the most gracious, civic-minded people I ever met. He was a pleasure to work with and always managed to get things done in a tactful, constructive way. I'm sure he has inspired many by his example and that his impact on the community will be a lasting one.
