“ James, Mr Hospitality! He loved to cook and invite family and friends over, always seeing to his guests, making sure they were well fed and making sure you took a plate home💕
You had some difficult years and it took you some time to fight those battles, and to get on the path to life but you did it! You learned to deal with your health issues and with past trauma.
That's why it's hard to accept your passing, not now, not yet😞
Our James was back to his smiling, laughing self.
Our hearts are broken.💕💕 Our love for you, your Mom and Grandma will always remain strong. Rest my love🙏 Love Aunt Pat and family💋

“ I remember James very well, he hung around with my son Sonny, nephews Marty Vindiola and Rudy Bernal. They were always getting into some kind of predicament. Lovingly they were brats.💕 They all used to crack me up doing a lot of mischievous things. Thank you James for all the hilarious memories. May you Rest In Peace🙏✝️
