“ Uncle Jim, Ed needed a good friend up in heaven, even though he has plenty up there. God took you up there to make sure Ed was ok. I miss all the hunting & shooting trips we did. Seems like I spent a lot of time with you & Ed. I'll see you both again one day and others. Hopefully Amy will shoot a deer this year and we'll name it Ed & Jim. I miss the talks we had at camp and the what did you buy this time. Haha. Tell we see each other again. You will never be forgotten.

“ I wish everyone could experience growing up next door to grandparents as I did with mine. What a way to grow up!! My siblings and I were blessed to just walk over and see my grandpa whenever we spotted him outside mowing his lawn. I'm going to miss hearing him greet me with "Well hello bobzie" when I walk into a room. I can't wait to hear it some day when I see you again. Untill then.. I hope your fishing and hunting up in heaven.

“ Ed and I always so enjoyed our visits and camping trips with Mary and Jim. We all are going to miss Jim. I can just see Jim and Ed sitting on a cloud above Jim's mountain watching the deer running around.
