In Loving Memory of Javier Alvarez

Sunrise: July 27, 1962 — | Sunset: August 27, 2025

It is with heavy hearts and deep sorrow that we announce the passing of Javier Alvarez, who left us far too soon.

Javier was more than a beloved son, cherished brother, and fun-loving Tío—he was the vibrant heartbeat of every room he entered. With a guitar in hand and a joke on his lips, Javier brought light and laughter to all who knew him. His spirit was joyful, his humor infectious, and his love for music undeniable.

A gifted guitarist, Javier had a rare ability to connect with people through his melodies and warm presence. Whether strumming a heartfelt tune or spinning a story that made everyone laugh, he reminded us all of the simple joys in life and the power of kindness.

Javier's legacy lives on in the memories we hold, the songs he played, and the love he gave so freely. He was truly the life of the party—but more than that, he was the happy soul of our family and a friend to many.

Javier is survived by his father, Jesse R. Alvarez, Brothers, Armando Alvarez, Jesse Alvarez Jr, Eddie Alvarez, Sister, Diana, and her husband Macario

Naranjo Sister, Patricia, and her husband Steven Williams and numerous nephews and nieces who loved him very much. He was preceded in death by his Mother, Alice Alvarez, and his two Brothers John and Victor Alvarez.

He will be deeply missed, always remembered, and loved forever
