“ Jeff was always the most supportive fun loving man- I truly enjoyed riding with him and that led to a deeper lasting friendship. For many years we would celebrate our birthdays together since they were both in November. He could go from fun loving and joking to deeply insightful and always had wonderful guidance or viewpoints on any situation. He was so creative and talented and I loved seeing things he had painted or made or drawn. His love for the Lord was inspiring and there were several times he had posted things that I needed at that moment. He will be greatly missed by all. I am grateful to have known him. Praying for you today and always. Jeff, my dear friend will always be remembered.
Sincerely, Tammy Petrossian
