Tribute Wall

“ I'm late to this party but here's my tribute. I knew Dave as a much younger man, in the 80s (when he was in those VK photos). He was a great guy, generous of spirit and a real leader. I felt like sometimes it was not easy or natural for him but he was always positive, always energetic. I looked up to him and really valued his friendship and guidance. We fell out of contact and I regret that, but I'll never forget how he helped me grow in confidence and learn to be my best self. Thanks, Dave. RIP

“ I met Dave "Macnessa" online playing World of Warcraft more than a decade ago, and in that brief time came to know him as a truly great man who was loved by everyone who met him. I will forever be grateful for the time we spent together. This world was a better place with him in it, and I am deeply saddened to see him taken so soon. I will miss you Mac.

“ Jerry and I were online friends for a decade. His love for drum corp was among many things that allowed us to form a real life bond that extended beyond our playing of World of Warcraft. The world is a lesser place now because of "Mac's" passing. I will miss you Brother

“Dave (Mac) was and always will be dear to my heart. We met in the World of Warcraft when my husband, brother and mother-in-law joined Amnesty guild. We bonded instantly through our mutual love of pet collecting and through others in our guild who did the same. We spent many hours talking about life and work, advocacy for others, and the value of a tender heart. Mac was a wonderful person. He always had a witty line or a respectful word that brought cheer to your heart when it was heavy. He loved his work and his life. He was passionate about helping others and really listened when it was needed. He gave good, calm, caring advice and often shared his worries and hopes; always in a quiet and humble way. The world was lucky to have a man like our Mac in it and the light in the world seems dimmer in his passing.

I miss you my friend but we will see each other again. Until then, may your light warm the heavens as your kindness warmed the hearts of your friends. You will never be forgotten.

“ Dave "Macnessa" Meade touched lives wherever he went and we have all been blessed to have known him. He was always helping others in need with his thoughtful words and deeds. He will be missed by all but will live on in our hearts as we cherish our happy memories. I am honored to have been close to him and call him my best and dearest friend for over 20 years. I cherish every moment we had together. Dave was truly a blessing in my life and I will miss him until we can be together again. All my love.

“ I met Dave in World of Warcraft as Macnesssa and we were often online at the same time. We were in at least 3 guilds together and raided many a dungeon together. I had just said hi to him in private chat just a couple days before his passing. It's crazy to me that he is now gone. It feels surreal almost.

Mac was a great guy, beloved guild mate, and a treasured friend. I never met Mac in person, but I know that he is loved and will be missed by all that knew him. My heart goes out to all of those mourning with me. For me, I know logging on World of Warcraft will never be the same.

“ I knew Dave from my World of Warcraft days, he was Macnessa or Mac to me. Mac was a friendly guy who was willing to help out when he could. The guy would be willing to give you the shirt off his back. I am not surprised to hear about all the selfless things he has done in his personal life. He carried himself in the game as he did in life. Mac, you will be missed the world and World of Warcraft are lesser without you.

“ I knew him as a good friend online for many years. A level-headed and reliable person with a heart of gold, I remember him fondly and know that he will live on in the memories of others. I'll see you again Mac, godspeed 'til then.

“ I didn't know Jerry (Macnessa) very well but I have casually known and been around him off and on throughout the years. He was a great guy anytime I had the pleasure of spending time and hanging out with him. I will miss you Mac, thanks for always being a standup guy and you will be deeply missed. Stolen from us all far too soon. I'll see you on the other side, hope you're fighting some Horde up there. -Andrew Wells (Nightgecko)
