“ My Uncle Jessie was a beautiful person. I enjoyed the time we spent at his home. We new we were always welcome. To listen to him, my Tia and my mom talk was a blast. Nothing but laughter in that home. His voice was crisp and he was full of wisdom. My Tio loved my Tia and his kids, you could see it in his face when he spoke of them. I am so honored to have such great memories of the times we had at his home. I will miss him very much. And to my Tia and cousins i send my deepest condolences because i know how much you all will miss him. Love you all. Margaret Partida
