

Joan L. Bujulian Kevorkian

June 2, 1932 - August 24, 2024

Joan Lee Bujulian was born on June 2, 1932 to Hagop and Naomi Bujulian. She is preceded in passing by her parents and sister, Corinne. Joan attended Clovis High school, where she was very active in tennis, cheerleading and many club and school activities. She graduated with honors in 1950.

Thereafter, she married George Santikian in 1950, the owner of Pacific Raisin company in Fowler, California. Joan operated the business office in the company with many duties.

In 1953, 1954, and 1957 Joan had 3 children: George, Lynn, and Jean respectively. She was a very dedicated mother and homemaker, who really enjoyed entertaining, Armenian dancing, listening to music, watching college football, cooking many delicious Armenian dishes, was an avid reader of books and was very creative in crocheting and needle point. She was always making various items for family and friends.

She was a loving, caring and generous mother, mother-in-law and grandmother to us all. She will be greatly missed by her family and friends. May God be with her and keep her always. Thank you to our family and friends for their support and Maida and Avak Hekemian for organizing a very fine daily care with all the wonderful Armenian ladies who cared and loved her like family.

She is preceded in death by her husband Art S. Kevorkian on February 14, 2002.

She is survived by her son George J. Santikian and his wife Debra Lee of Fresno; daughters Lynn Santikian of North Hollywood and Jean Ann Kallie of Los Angeles; grandchildren Leslie Santikian of Fresno, Stephanie Asdourian of South San Francisco and Kimberly Santikian of Fresno.

Donations may be made in her name to the donor's favorite charity.

A Funeral Service will be held at Chapel of the Light Funeral Home on Friday, September 6, 2024 at 11:00 a.m.
