“ My memories of grandpa are bits and pieces because most of my time was spent with grandma while he was working overseas. I remember times of helping in his garden, picking and watering all his plants; typing documents he needed. I remember watching TV with him or just being with him and he would do the snorting sound instead of blowing his nose lol. It is gross at first but then it is just something he does. Grandpa was a humble man, who I rarely saw get mad but if he did he meant business lol. He will be missed, will always be loved, and always remembered!

“ A quiet man of few words but through him love runs deep. Always and forever my daddy.

“ *My Father was a simple, happy man. I remember listening to him sing this powerful hymn, "How Great Thou art". How fitting are the lyrics.
"When Christ shall come with shouts of acclamation. And take me home, what JOY shall fill my heart". Amen.*

“ Man of few words but LOVE was the language word spoken more often by my wonderful and loving dad. I love you dad.

Quiet, short with words but love runs deep. Always been the "Tiagas" in mom's eyes. Always and forever my daddy.
