

John Delgado

June 23, 1957 - April 29, 2026

John Delgado of Sanger passed away on April 29th, 2026. He was a life-long resident of Sanger. He was the second to the oldest son of three. He is survived by his two sisters, Rachel Carrillo of Parlier and Sylvia Blanco of Fresno. His deceased parents, Pete Delgado and Matilda Esqueda Delgado of Sanger were also long time residents of Sanger. John Delgado was employed by the Postal Service in Fresno for over 32 years. His favorite hobbies were purchasing lottery scratchers and playing slot machines at his favorite casino, The Table Mountain Casino. He also enjoyed watching the Price is Right on tv. John appeared on the Price is Right with the legendary host Bob Barker back in 1982. His appearance on the Price is Right was featured in the Sanger Herald Newspaper in a lengthy article on 2/4/82. His appearance on the Price is Right can also be viewed on Youtube. John loved being around his nephews and nieces. John will be missed but not forgotten.

“ Johnny , I will forever be grateful for all the love and kindness you have shown me throughout the years. You always greeted with a hug, smile, and a kiss on the cheek. You bought each of my kids their first piggy bank and they still have the silver dollars you put inside of them. The love you have for your siblings , nieces, and nephews is unmatched. I am beyond honored to have known you all these years. I will miss you greatly 😭
