A father is the one who guides his daughters through life, and now even in death we you will guide us during this difficult times. You are constantly showing us that love never dies. You speak to us through many ways. We can listen closely and hear your sweet voice. Your death has been a mysterious doorway with so much painful grieving for us. Heartache that we never knew was possible and mysterious because we never know how or when that door is going to open and pull us in. Its been a few day and we see you are opening doors to comforting us during this hard times of our life. Dad, you taught us what heroes are made of. That is why our heart aches right now because God has called you home. You taught us how to love life even when it's terrifying and difficult and you know it's going to be painful. We sat and held your hand throughout life and threw out the years of your pain and suffering, we saw an incredible person, our hero that we call dad. We thank you for you love support and always being strong for us. We miss you dearly but we know God take the best. We also know that you are not alone. You are with the love of your life Patty and our other angel Jessica Hernandez that went before you. Dad you are an amazing father that anyone could have wanted. If we had to pick a father again we would pick you all over again. We thank God for the time he has given us with you here in life. You leaves us with our heart aching but God and the angels will give strength.

John is survived by his loving girls: Kristen Martinez of Firebaugh, Janete Hernandez of Firebaugh and Karyn Lopez of Firebaugh. His pride and joy 7 grandchildren. John had three brothers and two sisters many nieces and nephews.
