“ John, or "Johnny" was a favorite first cousin. When his parents adopted my 3 older cousins after losing both parents in the Autumn of 1956, John became a neighbor, 4 years older than me. As a result, I witnessed a lot of Cub Scout, and then Boy Scout activities. My Mom and her sister, Auntie Betty were Den Mothers. John was active in our local Little League; he also earned the trophy for highest Batting Average. He taught me how to ride a bicycle, and boosted my (shaky) confidence on 2 wheels! Always loved him for that. Later on, he served our country in Vietnam. We wrote him letters on a regular basis, even learned which cookies traveled best overseas and how to pack the maximum amount of Sorghum Raisin Cookies. These he shared with his fellow GIs, many of whom received no letters from home, let alone homemade goodies. At some point, Johnny became an excellent bowler. Not sure how many 300 games he achieved. After we were no longer neighbors, John had an upbeat attitude and sense of humor. I learned that after the Halloween candy was gone, there was another celebration not far behind: Johnny's birthday celebration with cake and other sweet treats. He was a great guy, I love him and I'll miss him. What you might be thunder overhead, just might be John bowling in the Pearly Gates Bowling Alley!
