He was a veteran and a fun guy to talk with. His support if his children was to be admired. A happy smile on his face made me smile. RIP and I'm sending angels of strength, comfort and love to his familia. Blessings

“ I've know John and the Dominquez family for a little over 30 years. John has always been so loving and welcoming. Even when I showed up unannounced throughout my teens, or lined up for a meal while over to play with my friend, his son Michael, he had an ear to ear smile and a sense of humor that kept you on your toes. He was always willing to help or teach, and pretty good at humorous criticisms!

I've always thought that the relationship and love shared between Michael and his pops was incredible. Together, they've set the bar for my own father son relationship with my little man. I hope to at least come within reach of the bar set by John and Michael.

Thank you for everything. For teaching me, loving me, and for showing me an aspect of manhood and fatherhood I try to live up to every day.

“ Johnny loved, married my life long friend Bea and built a beautiful life with three kids and now grandkids. He was full joy, nicknamed me Fiat and was always welcoming. Loved by all. Forever in our hearts.
