

Jose Luis Acosta Jr.

September 25, 1975 - July 14, 2015

Jose Luis Acosta Jr., a charismatic, gentle-hearted man with a fun-loving spirit. Our beloved son, brother, uncle, cousin, nephew, was an old soul! He enjoyed playing his trumpet along with all genres of music, especially jazz! Jose was at his best when doing the things he loved; cooking for family and friends while listening to music together, camping, fishing, football, swimming or just relaxing watching a favorite movie. Whatever task was given to him he was sure to be the best at it, as he was always so accomplished and recognized for top sales. Jose was a natural leader.

Jose was blessed to know the unconditional love of his family, especially his mother. Jose was adored by his nieces and nephews, rightfully so, as they all had a very special place in their Uncle Joe's heart. Jose's younger sisters knew his protective nature all too well and his older sissy was always there to keep him in check. In all Jose and his sisters could always count on each other. Always.

Jose was survived by his mother, Gloria Acosta, older sister, Rebecca Ojeda (Husband, Ronnie and daughters, Gabriella, Maya and Sofia), younger sisters, Teresa Acosta (husband William Bruegemann and daughters, Emma, Olivia and Lilliam), Mary Petra Higley (husband, Matthew Higley and sons, Cyrus and Ryan) and Sandra Anna Murillo (husband, Uver Murillo and sons Diego and Mateo). Jose also loved his aunts, uncles, cousins and friends with all he had.

Jose is preceded in death by his father, Jose Luis Acosta Sr. who like Jose Jr. left this earth too soon, but not without filling our hearts with immense love. Also greeting Jose Jr. at the golden gates are his grandparents, Pedro & Velia Acosta and Demetrio and Petra Perez and most recently cousins, Tommy and Xe Acosta.

“ I give my most heartfelt condolences to the entire family. Joe was the best husband and greatest father to my daughter. He loved hard and tried his best at everything. I was the luckiest woman to have shared the short-time we had together with him.

“ Joe,
It was hard to say good by old friend but I know you are at peace and happy with your father. From our middle school days to adults we had ups and downs but turned to each other for help. You were one of a kind and will be missed. Good bye bro!

“ It is with a heavy heart that I send my condolences to Joe's Family & Friends. Such a happy and easy going person that loved his Family so much. Here's a good memory: The time you and I went to Pismo Beach, I'll never forget the happiness you created for the people at the beach that day as you played the trumpet. See you again one day. Travel well.

“ Well for me I have so many great memories of my cousin Joe , I always told him that he was like one of my brothers. And that he could count on his big bro whenever he need me, but one of my best moments was when it would be me, Joe, and his best friend Donovan, we be at my house in the kitchen table of course having some beers but having us sing every los lonely boys song he had, it was funny cause he would a sign me and Donovan parts of the song he wanted us to sing, and would always want me to do the air guitar , believe it our not but we be doing this for hours.....we do each song tell we got it down perfect.....but bro I never told you but I had so much fun singing with you.....you well always be in my/ heart brother....love you give grams a big hug for me.....:-(
