

Jose Manuel Cisneros

May 8, 1978 - July 9, 2023

Jose Manuel Cisneros, the son of Jose Cisneros & Alba Velarde-Cisneros, was born May 8, 1978 in Madera, California. He went to be with the Lord on July 9, 2023 at the age of 45 after suffering cardiac arrest.

He graduated Central High School in 1996 and attended some college. He attended Central Community Church, including men's retreats, during his young adult years and accepted Jesus as his Lord and Savior there. He loved nature such as the ocean and mountains, enjoyed listening to oldies music and especially loved to discover how things were made and worked. Jose Manuel really enjoyed learning and self-taught himself how to work on and fix phones, bikes, welding, auto mechanic and much more. His last project being working on was translating a Hebrew Bible to English as well as to Spanish at the same time so his mother could read it. He will be remembered for his kind and gentle demeanor, knack for learning and his sense of humor. He leaves behind to cherish his memory his parents Jose and Alba Cisneros; daughters Linda Marie and Desiree; brothers Eric (sister-in-law Melissa), Chrystian, Alex; nephews Cash and Mateo; nieces Savannah, Emily, Molly, Lilly, Aliyah and Ayumi. He is preceded in death by his younger brother Alejandro Cisneros.

Visitation will be held Monday, July 24, 2023, from 5:00 to 8:00pm at Chapel of the Light in Fresno, CA. Service will be held Tuesday at 9:00am at The Word Community Church, 4710 N. Polk Ave, Fresno, CA with graveside service immediately after at Fresno Memorial Gardens.
