“ My condolences to all my Salinas family and friends. From all the good words i have heard and seen about my cuzzin chalupas have really impressed me and shows me how much of a kind person he was and how much of a good loving father he was. It is a shame that family must come together on such an occasion to reunite, but for me it has been a long time that i have seen family and i am really looking forward to attending the service's to come and pray along side with my family, Love you all.
