

Jose C. Trujillo

December 28, 1934 - August 15, 2021

Uncle Joe was born in Maxwell, NM in 1934. His parents were Andres Trujillo and Maria Maes. He moved to California as a young man, where he lived the majority of his life in Fresno, CA. Uncle Joe choose never to marry or to have children, however he had numerous nephews and nieces whom he loved. Uncle Joe is survived by his sister Frances Lopez, he was preceded in death by his parents, his sisters Margaret Ostos, Emily Combs and his brothers Michael Maes and Frank Trujillo. Uncle Joe worked various jobs including working in the fields, packing fruit and as a part time mechanic. He loved to visit with all his friends at the Masten Towers where he lived his last years of life for over a decade. When you visited Uncle Joe you soon found out how popular and liked he was, everyone would approach him and say “hey Joe how are you today. “ In addition, this is where he met his caretaker who became a very close and loving friend, Rosa. Uncle Joe would love to watch his TV, always watching westerns, comedies and his favorite show, “Walker Texas Ranger”. Uncle Joe passed away peacefully in his sleep at the Willow Creek nursing home in Clovis, CA and is now residing in heaven with the Lord and his family and friends.
