“ I first met Joseph when I started working @ U.M.C. We were on the same shift and in the same security team. At first sight, Joseph looked like a big tough guy who isn't in to very much small talk. But, I was completely wrong! As I introduced myself, I found out quickly that I was wrong. Joseph was more like a big teddy bear who loved to talk, and joke around. He had an infectious laugh. While working through some tough shifts, we quickly became comrades, and I was part of his brotherhood. It's been a long time since I last spoke with, or saw Joseph. However, I have never forgotten his infectious laugh or quirked smile. I'm truly saddened by your passing brother.
