

Joseph Emanuel Britt Jr.

February 16, 1950 - March 30, 2025

Joseph Emanuel Britt, Jr, 75, of Fresno, CA, was born on February 16, 1950, in San Antonio, TX, and passed away peacefully on March 30, 2025, surrounded by family, and loved ones. Joseph is survived by his loving wife, Patricia, and his children, Tonya, Joseph, Jr, Ronald, Krystle and Ocean, and stepdaughter Janay, siblings Jan Britt Dixson and Karl Britt, and a host of grandchildren, great-grandchildren, nieces, nephews and cousins. He is preceded in death by his parents, Joseph Emanuel Britt, Sr. and La Verne Eloise Britt and grandson, Kobi Goodman. Joseph was a Patriot who loved his country and proudly served 39 years in the Air Force, in Active Duty, Reserves and Civil Service, achieving the rank of Master Sargent. Joseph loved the Lord, reading his bible and singing church hymns and had a beautiful baritone voice, lending his passion and talent to church choirs throughout most of his adult life. His favorite song is Amazing Grace. All loved him, and he loved to make people smile, often with a silly face or comment. He was known among many as Sir B., and mastered dominos to the point of a collection of trophies. His favorites included peanut butter and jelly sandwiches for lunch, the Dallas Cowboys and San Antonio Spurs. And he loved to dance. Joe, you will forever be loved, missed, and cherished in our hearts. May you rest in peace. Services will be at Chapel of the Light on April 23, 2025, in Fresno, CA. In lieu of flowers, please consider donating to St. Jude or ChildFund. Joe was very passionate about both of these organizations.

“ Condolences to all of Joe's family and friends. I will miss him terribly. He's been a big brother to me for most of my life 💖. I remember, during my first year in college, we were talking about adulting. Joe said he really didn't feel like an adult until after he had his first child.
