“ I have known Jovonne for over 39 years and was her best friend. She was a loving and caring spirit and always rooted for the underdog. Family is what she valued most and what gave her the greatest joy. She was a mother who lived the meaning of 'unconditional love'. As a professional hair stylist most of her adult life, she fostered many friendships and delighted in her skills making clients/friends look their best. Jovonne was uniquely talented. From her high school days attending Roosevelt High School in Fresno, CA to present day, she saw everyone as a friend. She is loved, and will be deeply missed.
