“ I will always remember my grandma “jenni” as the kind and warm woman that she was. Despite everything she had been through she was always there with a hug and smile and warm tortillas, always there to offer something to you or to ask how you’ve been. She cared so much about all her grandkids and great grandkids. When I was very small I could still remember even though I didn’t speak Spanish I knew exactly what she was saying. There was a certain feeling you get. And as I got older I loved to go over and see her and listen to her talk. I think about all the strong women who raised me and how everyone of them carries a piece of Grandma Jauna with them

I hope that never let that piece of her go. To always carry the light of our elders around and to remember that their love is what’s important in life

“ my beloved queen, you are now at peace in the arms of or Lord and savior Jesus Christ, for that I am truly at peace. I will miss playing dice games and loteria with you, I will miss your laugh and your smile and the way you always held my face when I hugged you. I will miss seeing you clapping your hands and praising the Lord at church. I have immense comfort in the fact that I know we will be reunited again in heaven one day. Until then I pray you rest peacefully. I love you very much and forever will miss you my grandma, my mom, my queen....
