

Kamaljit S. Brar

June 2, 1949 - April 24, 2025

In Loving Memory of Kamaljit Singh Brar<sup>[1]</sup><sub>SEP</sub> June 2, 1949 – April 24, 2025

Our beloved Kamaljit Singh, passed away peacefully on April 24, 2025. His wishes were honored, and he was surrounded by love.

He was born and raised in the small village of Veroke, India, where his early life was shaped by strong family roots and deep cultural traditions. In his early 20s, he came to America on his own to study and build a new life, an act of immense courage that would define his spirit for decades to come.

He was the kind of man who gave without hesitation. If someone needed something and he had it—even if he needed it himself—he would offer it without a second thought. He lived with a quiet generosity that touched every person around him, always offering more than he would ever expect in return. That quiet generosity shaped the way he moved through the world and left a lasting impression on everyone he met.

To so many, he was a source of steady love and guidance, he was and always will be our husband, our father, our brother, our uncle, our elder, our friend. In our culture, these roles blend and expand, and he held them all with devotion, humility, and grace.

His laughter, his stories, and the way he made people feel seen and cared for will live on in the hearts of all who knew him.

A Funeral Service will be held at the Chapel of Light on Sunday, April 27 at 10:30am, followed by Langar, Bhog and Ardas at Gurwara Nanaksar Sahib at 1:30pm.

The family is deeply grateful for your love, prayers, and support during this time.
