“ Kendra,

As I sit here, grappling with the overwhelming emptiness your absence has left behind, I find solace in the memories we shared, the laughter we echoed, and the love we cherished. Your radiant spirit, so full of life and light, continues to dance in the corners of my heart, a gentle reminder of the beauty you brought into this world.

Though your time with us was far too short, the impact you made in those precious years is immeasurable. Your kindness knew no bounds, your compassion boundless, and your love unconditional. You had a way of seeing the best in everyone, of lifting spirits with your infectious laughter, and of leaving a trail of warmth wherever you went. Hearing from your friends that you had the biggest personality on campus and how you always had a way of making everyone feel heard, loved, and happy makes my heart smile.

Oh, how I miss the sound of your laughter and the goofiness, you had a special way of lighting up a room and making everyone smile. It's difficult to comprehend why your life was cut so short, but I find comfort in knowing that your spirit continues to live on in the hearts of those you touched.

As we navigate the days ahead, I promise to carry your memory with me, to honor your legacy of love and kindness, and to live each day with the same zest for life that you embodied. You may be physically gone, but your presence will forever linger in the depths of my soul, a guiding light in times of darkness.

Rest easy, sweet Kendra, knowing that you are dearly loved and deeply missed. Until we meet again, may your spirit find peace in the arms of Jesus, and may your memory continue to inspire and uplift those whose lives you've touched.

*Love you always,
Aunt Tiff*
