

Larry Kovack

September 23, 1941 - May 13, 2014

Lawrence Joseph "Larry" Kovack, a resident of Fresno since 1949, was born in Fort Collins, Colorado on September 23, 1941. He passed away at his home on May 13, 2014 at the age of 72.

Larry's love for people engaged him in many business endeavors. He managed and eventually purchased his father's business, Joe's Café. From there, he owned his own restaurant, Larry's Coffee Shop. Finally, Larry retired as a dietary manager with Beverly Enterprises.

Larry's greatest and most beloved work was preaching the Good News of God's Kingdom. He was baptized as one of Jehovah's Witnesses in 1980 and enjoyed over 34 years in the world-wide Bible education work. He was an elder at the Sunnyside Congregation and loved helping many others learn Bible truths.

He is preceded in death by his parents Flora and Joseph Kovack; sister Beverly Witfield and step-daughter Sharron Miller.

Larry is survived by Betty Jo Kovack, his beloved wife of 44 years; his son Vincent Lawrence Kovack and his wife Veronica; his daughter Jacquelyn Soltero and her husband Augustin; sisters Mary Heredia and her husband Hank, Helen Maugeri and her husband Nick, Laura Garfin and her husband Howard, Leila Hollis, Eileen Hackler and her husband Bob, Dorothy Jones and her husband Ray; step-daughters Janice Burgess, Jeannie Shelton, Darla Lawrence and her husband Gary; step-son Michael Pauley; thirteen grandchildren; many great grandchildren, nieces and nephews.

Larry was deeply loved by all who knew him.

Memorial services will be held at the Kingdom Hall of Jehovah's Witnesses, 2420 S. Willow Avenue in Fresno on Saturday, May 24, 2014 at 4:00 p.m.
