

Lauren Elizabeth Farmer

March 23, 1993 - September 19, 2015

Lauren Elizabeth Farmer passed away suddenly on Friday, September 18, 2015. Lauren was a kindhearted, loving and outgoing soul. She accepted Jesus Christ as her personal savior while attending vacation bible school as a child at Riverpark Bible Church. She loved fishing, hiking, hunting, and panning for gold and had a passion for the outdoors. She attended Garfield elementary school, Alta Sierra Intermediate School and graduated from Buchanan high school. After high school, she attended college at Prince William Sound in Valdez, Alaska and also went to college abroad in Ireland before returning home to California.

Once back home, Lauren took animal science classes at Reedley community college where she showed hogs and cattle. She then transferred to the University of Phoenix to study business. She summited Mount Whitney in 2013 and loved the mountains and being in the wild.

She is survived by her mother Jana, father Patrick, brother Joshua, grandparents Howard and Donna Taylor, Elsie Farmer and many aunts, uncles, cousins and her beagle puppy, Daisy Ann who she wanted to train as a therapy dog to help wounded warriors and take into senior citizen homes to give them comfort.

A celebration of Lauren's life will be held at Riverpark Bible Church at 7500 N.

Millbrook on Wednesday, September 30 at 10:30 AM. A graveside service will be held immediately afterwards at the Clovis cemetery with a reception at Riverpark Bible Church. In lieu of flowers remembrances may be made to honor Lauren's love of animals by donating to the Fresno Police Department K-9 unit, through the Fresno Police Chief's Foundation at 2323 Mariposa, Fresno, Calif, 93721 or Therapy Dogs International at 6083 N.
