

Lauro A. Parra

August 18, 1951 - September 27, 2018

Lauro Parra, known to friends and family as “Lalo,” passed away on September 27, 2018. He was 67 years old. He was born in Coyula, Nayarit, Mexico on August 18, 1951 to Antonio and Eustolia Parra.

Having grown up on a farm, he developed a strong work ethic that served him as a farmer, businessman, and overall leader. At the age of 16, with an ailing father, he took the role as provider for his family and sought a new life in California. Having worked on the family farm his entire life, the Central Valley and its vast agricultural land was a natural fit. Recognized for being committed and industrious, he quickly moved up the ranks. He worked for Burford Farms for most of his life, devoting himself to almond farming. Besides his almonds orchards, his other passion was horses. During the last decade of his life, he raised prize-winning racehorses along with his youngest son, Sergio.

Though farming and animals were his passion, his true love was undeniably his family. His world revolved around his wife and two sons. He is survived by the love of his life, his wife of 35 years, Margarita (nee Hernandez), sons Lauro Alonso of New York, New York and Sergio Antonio (and Fiancé Andreina) of Fresno, California. He was looking forward to the birth of his first grandchild in February. He is also survived by ten brothers and sisters and many nieces and nephews.
