“ My name is Janise Negrete James but to Leilani I was Concha. I meet her at Roosevelt during my freshman year while she was cheering for Roosevelt. Leilani had the kind of personality that made you feel included and loved, even after high school we stayed in touch. We were inseparable. She actually introduced me to My Husband. We share four kids together and I couldn't think Leilani enough for taking me along with her that night. You're truly gonna be missed Leilani I love you.
