

Luis Alberto Amezcua

November 16, 1989 - August 28, 2019

Luis was born to Alberto Amezcua and Maria Hernandez in Fresno, California on November 16, 1989 and passed away in Waterford, California on August 28, 2019.

Luis Alberto Amezcua or as we all knew our little brother as Whicho. Whicho was the kind of man that never harmed or disrespected anyone. He always wore his kind heart on his sleeve and the most important thing for him was Family. He always made sure that his family knew that he loved them. It was a rare occasion if you ever saw him not smiling. He had a laugh that so contagious that you could not help but to laugh with him. He always made sure that wherever he was he was thinking about you and he make it know by sending you a text or a call just to see where you were up to and to make sure you were okay. The little bit that Whicho had he would share it with you without hesitation. If you ever got the opportunity to step into his home and spend time with him you would easily see the kind of man he was. Always cracking jokes and making people laugh and smile. He was the best son, brother, uncle, and friend you could ever asked for in life. He cherished the time the he spend with family. Family was everything for Whicho. Whicho was never alone because although he didn't go out much he was able to communicate and make friends through online gaming which was one of his passions. He enjoyed collecting video game and Japanese anime memorabilia. All of his online friends knew him as Moonkingdom89 and will forever have a void in their hearts because of his loss. His favorite anime cartoon growing up was Dragon Ball Z and his favorite video game was Kingdom Hearts. Thus where his online gaming tag was born. Which will forever be missed by his family, friends and anyone that ever had the pleasure to cross paths with him. This world has lost one of the most kindhearted individuals that had ever step on this earth and our world will never be the same without him.

Luis is preceded in death by his brother Edgar Farias.

He is survived by his siblings Alvaro Cantoriano, Hugo Cantoriano, Tomas Farias and Maricela Amezcua, many loving aunts, uncles, cousins and extended family and friends.
