She spent the several years raising her family while also caring for her aged mother and her father-in-law, and often entertaining many family get-togethers which consisted of wall to wall aunts, uncles nieces, nephews and cousins.

She went to work at American Optical in the late 1960's and then later worked at the IRS for 3 years.

Her favorite pastime was her puzzle books which kept her mind sharp. She enjoyed years of card playing, bingo and social events at the mobile home clubhouse, especially enjoying when there was music and dancing. She loved to dance!
