“ Manuel was one of my first friends when I was in Fresno attending Heald College in the early 80's. I still remember his white Monte Carlo blasting away Burn Rubber by the Gap band on that killer car stereo he had. He was huge guy who introduced me to a lifestyle I, a piss ant from Richgrove out on his own for the first time, was not ready for. He was a person you were relieved and glad to have on your side. I made a poor attempt to track his whereabouts a long while back thru social media but was unsuccessful. As recently as March '24 I tried again being in a reflective mood. I was struck by how we drifted apart in my last years in Fresno. I did not expect to get this news of his passing when I entered Manuel Garcia Mendota. I literally was in tears at the beginning of this post. I never forgot my friend and I'm deeply saddened that I still not only with him but with the persons I met through him I failed miserably to stay in touch. Tim I pray your doing well. God speed. "we'll meet again someday on the avenue"
Your friend Rudy or as Manuel would call me sometimes "Rutherford" and without ever letting him know that he also one time referred to me as "Twinkle Toes". I'll wear it as an affectionate badge of honor.
