“ So many memories of Manuel have been flooding through my mind this past week it was hard to pick a memory, so I will just say Manuel loved fishing, but he also loved singing, playing the guitar warm beer and playing pool. He was known to drive around for what seemed like hours to save a few cents on something he wanted. He couldn't pass up a penny on the ground unless it was heads up; anything else was bad luck! Don and I will miss him terribly, but we won't say goodbye to my brother, compadre and friend. To use one of his expressions, "I'm glad you got to see me."

“ Manuel. What can I say? I can say that I am grateful that the yearning I know you felt for your lost loved ones is now gone, I'm grateful that you are with Della and Jenny. . I can say that your kids and grand kids miss you dearly but you already know that. I can say that I am grateful that the longing to make that daily phone call to Mom is gone since you'll see her daily. I am glad that you will see Dad, and that Tony, Joe, Mary, Corina and you will again sing songs and Rosie will play the spoons. Our hearts ache, for we are the ones who are suffering but I am glad it's not you. We suffer your loss but it is with the knowledge that you are where you belong, in heaven knocking on the pearly gates with smiling faces just on the other side waiting patiently, it seems to us like it takes forever to get to eternity but to them it is but a second in time. As we wave our goodbyes and dry our eyes they wave hello and greet you so. Farewell Manuel, we will miss you, but I know we have to let you go.

Adios Bro.
