“ Tia Maggie was the first person I met when my husband Willie Sanders and I went to visit Fresno. From day one she was happy, loving, with a heart of gold. Every trip we made would start with a visit to Tia Maggie and Tio Rudy's house. Memories of our conversations her smile and laughter will always be cherish within my heart. Rest in peace beautiful lady till we meet again.

“ My favorite time with my mom was taking her wherever she wanted to go on that day. We would go thrift store shopping and then we would share a meal afterwards. She loved eggplant Parmesan, fried oysters, chile con queso , burgers and going to The Olive Garden. I loved watching her get excited over wrestling. She enjoyed eating her Mexican sweet bread. I will miss her terribly.
