

Maria H. Cazares

November 28, 1946 - February 14, 2019

Maria de Jesus was born on the 28th of November 1946 in Mexico City, Mexico. She passed away at her home in Fresno on February 14, 2019 at the age of 72.

Married Juan Guillermo Cazares in December of 1971. Two daughters – Gabriela and Olga Cazares. Always busy and never took naps – she said she would nap the day she died. She like to crochet and made numerous baby clothes, blankets, scarfs, sweaters and hats for her family. She was tiny but walked so fast, you couldn't keep up, even shortly before she got really sick. We teased her about Hobby Lobby and Joan's – she went often to buy yarns and material for all her projects. She was a loving, kind mama, a devoted wife and an adoring grandmother and spoiled them to no end. She devoted her last years to the care of her granddaughters – Montse and Pilar. She was their best cheerleader at their games, play or sports events. My father remembers the first meal – stuffed tomatoes but she cultivated her culinary skills and made delicious, traditional Mexican meals for her whole family and friends.
