“ I truly miss you, just being near you and watching you smile was inspirational. I aspire to be anything close to who you were, with your unwavering loyalty, compassion, support, and encouragement. You taught me what unconditional love is, and how to give of myself and put others before myself. I love you and miss you so much!

“ From the Hull, Cooper and Pearson familys. We think everybody for such a wonderful turn out physically, mentally and spiritually. In person or personal reflection it couldn't have turned out better. A family has one no more wish to grant today And then she will be at complete rest. Thanks to everybody for their support in this crucial time of need. I will not be forgotten, Much love

“ Marion, Has been my mother for the past 10 years. When I first met Marion I would have never a magined having this kind of relationship, where I did not need anything from her and she did not need anything from me, but ...LOVE.

There was the occasion Son-in-law to-do list, here and there. Marion would always tell me thank you when I helped her with things. No matter how many times I asked her to stop. That's just what we do...LOVE.

She never stopped being who she was. Even all the way up to the end, where the last thing she wanted to eat was chocolate. She touched my life in so many ways, I didn't always understand it But maybe it wasn't my place to understand. Maybe it was just my place to be there for such a wonderful friend, teacher, daughter, grandmother, mother. She wore many hats but my favorite was...LOVE

The last time she came home, It was great. I know it was the last time but, it is just perfect how it turn out. All her children under the same rough, taking care of their mother's wishes. Just as she planned, the house to be filled with...LOVE

I spent a lot of time with her holding her hand, brushing her hair and just talking to her. I didn't realize how tough it was going to be. I've been trying to talk to Michelle for years about being prepared for such a thing. I don't think, when I should have been preparing myself. But what I found in this time was one of the greatest things, peer...LOVE

Love we keep us moving. I love you Robert
