

Marjorie E. Rockwell

July 8, 1941 - September 21, 2022

Marjorie Ellen Rockwell

Beloved mother, wife, sister and friend, left us to be with our Lord and Savior, and God our Father. September 21st, 2022. She is rejoined in heaven by her mother, Mildred Lindstrom, father Fred Lindstrom, brother Richard Lindstrom, Husband Donald Rockwell, and her son Timothy Liddle.

She is survived by her sister, Barbara Niboli, her son Thomas Liddle, nieces Donna Ferguson and Pamela Matos, and nephews Kenneth Schoener, Michael Liddle, and Johnny Upshaw.

Most friends and family knew her as Margie, but her best nickname was the one called her by her beloved husband, Rocky, who called her Emee.

He said it came from a choice to call her something different than everybody else and used her first initial 'M' and middle initial 'E'.

One of her long-standing passions was needle craft. In particular, sewing, a skill that she picked up in her youth and used to help her family to create clothing for daily use and also many gifts throughout the years. She often made her own dresses and possessed a large collection of patterns. Later in life she took up some paper crafts, applying stamping and scrap booking skills that she used to make personalized gift cards.

Margie had a tender kind caring heart, loved her family deeply but also a feistiness that could surprise, delight, endear and humble those who encountered it.

Those fortunate to have known her will mourn her and miss her deeply.

Margie loved and worshiped her Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. We know that she is safe, happy and whole again in His loving arms and in the presence of those who have gone ahead of her. Go in Joy, Mom!

“ Oh my gosh. I just saw this. I hadn't heard from her in sometime & was concerned. We went to grammar school together, Jr. high & hi school, along with another friend, Gloria Bain. I guess you could have called us the 3 musketeers. We went roller skating 2 or 3 times a week, almost always at the movies on Saturday, celebrated our birthdays together. We had another friend, Peggy Allen Osburn, but she passed on a few years ago. Yet here I am at almost 83 & not doing too bad. This just breaks my heart, but I do know we can't go on forever. Please accept my sincere condolences. Kathy Andersen
