“ My prayers and heart go out to the family.....Mary and her husband I remember many days over and over again, in my store, with all the kids in tow....the days she was at Aynesworth helping the children, and the days he came in to get all you kids slurpees....Such wonderfully Sweet People.....always making me laugh and smile....they will forever be a part of my sweet memories of the wonderful neighborhood....as well as their children and grandchildren.....Marla A. Sinner

“ Remembering your lovely mom,grandma and what a wonderful person she was. At last she is with her handsome husband, the amazing Al, my wonderful old boss from years past. Both of them always treated me like family. They were both so proud of all of you kids and grandkids, and rightfully so. What an honor it was to have known the family. Bless you all and may your beautiful memories comfort you at this time. Linda Smith

“ Mary, you were such a unique, wonderful, giving person. We shared laughter and tears and so many memories when our kids were young. You supported me when I needed it and spoke the harsh truth to me when I needed that. Even though our lives moved apart, you were always in my heart, a rock in my life. Every time I see a mermaid, my first thought is and will always be. I love you and will never forget you.
