

Mary Helen Ramos Clegg

August 18, 1928 - September 27, 2025

It is with much grief and sadness that the family of Mary Helen Clegg announce her passing on Saturday the 27th, 2025 at the age of 97. Her son, Sam Clegg was with her when she passed.

Mary Helen will be lovingly remembered by her two sons Sam and Mike Clegg, her grandsons, Mason and Colton Clegg and Daughter-in-law, Mandy Clegg. She was preceded in death by her husband Larry Clegg and her brothers Rudolph Ramos, Nash Ramos and sisters Abby Ramos and Virginia Canales. She is survived by Boney Ramos, Teresa Lujan and Angie Ramos. Mary Helen Clegg was born in Fresno on August 18, 1928. She came from a family of three brothers and five sisters. She was a devout Catholic her entire life. Her mother and father came from Mexico and started a family in Fresno. Although her family came from humble beginnings they always had food on the table even during the Great Depression. Later in life the family thrived as each brother and sister chose their own paths.

Mary Helen Clegg got her first job at a department store in downtown Fresno and worked there through high school and after graduation. She worked as a typist and as a secretary at a hospital, police department, and insurance agency where she met her future husband, Larry Clegg. One of her last jobs she worked at before having children was at Cooper Middle School as a Librarian. The students there adored her and she was commonly sought after for guidance and advice.

In her final years she was a key part of her grandchildren's lives and enjoyed watching them grow. Mary Hellen Clegg lived a very fulfilled life and will be missed by many.

“ To the Clegg Family, How we will miss your Mother and Grandmother's stories, her wisdom, her unwavering faith. And mostly, her blunt sense of humor! She prayed with me and for my family and showed me prayer cards. My Aunt Helen told me to take a picture of the prayers so we could pray for our daughter as we awaited the birth of our grandson. Of course I took the pictures. Her faith was so strong. Praying for all of you. Love, your cousin, Paula & family
