“ My Aunt Mary was one of a kind. She had the smile that could light up the room and a heart FULL of love. My aunt would always offer a helping hand and would do anything for her family. My kids race BMX, and my aunt came out to several races to watch her great niece and nephew, she made it known she was sponsoring them in their sport. That is just who my aunt was- she would give you her shirt off her back and no questions asked. My kids loved their Aunt Mary, but they would call her "Grandma Mary". Aunt Mary would pick up my daughter Haylie. from pre-school My aunt would text me, "I am here to get my girl" It made her day to pick up Haylie from pre-school. My Aunt Mary would always tell me, "Shana, watch people's actions not words" My aunt's advice meant the world to me. A couple weeks before my aunt left us here on earth, Her and I were having a deep conversation about the lord and our beliefs. My aunt was a strong believer in our heavenly father, and I know she is our guardian angel now. Aunt Mary, you will be missed by so many. I love you.

“ I worked with Mary's daughter Nicole about 25-26 years ago. Mary would come into the store, which is how I knew her. I remember going to Pismo with Nicole and her mom. I really don't remember any of the details of why we went or what we did when we were there, but I do remember Mary letting me drive her car so Nicole and I could go to the pier. I remember being nervous about it, and her re-assuring me she had insurance, so it was fine. She was just a person, you remember, because she was nice and she was a cool mom! RIP Mary. Condolences to Nicole and the rest of the fam. Love, Tammi Coppedge

“ 15 years ago I transferred from Sacramento to Fresno. I knew no one. The day Mary walked in we locked eyes. We both were like “where do I know you from?” From that day on we didn't call each other by our names but only known as bff to each other. It was as if we had known each other or met before but we never did put the pieces together. I will never forget my bff. We spent countless days and nights together. We were more than bffs. We were family and even though I know we will see each other again my heart feels broken just as I know we all are. I take comfort in knowing my bff's fast passing was to keep her heart from breaking even though ours are. I could write about you forever bff. I love you ❤️ and always will. Love always from your bff. Rest easy
