“ I have many fond memories of Mary. A memory that stands out is how she inspired, then mentored and took me under her wing to teach me how to write plays/dramas for our church to perform. It was amazing how she would put a play together. She would tell me, you are going to need a good music director and she graciously volunteered her sister Lucy for the music. She then would tell me I needed a good narrator and she volunteered her baby sister Elisa! Great suggestions on both counts! Because of Mary, our local church was blessed to have had several holiday productions after she had married and had moved away.

Mary was also a great Sunday School teacher. My husband did not understand Spanish and asked Mary if he could attend her English Bible Sunday School class. He thoroughly enjoyed her class and learned so much. Tim states that Mary taught bible prophecy and current events; she taught Christian living and much more!

Mary was an amazing person. We will miss you greatly Mary. We love you. Until we meet again.

Thank you for being willing to carry the torch. I had no idea she gave you that advice. I'm so happy you included me in the plays you directed. I love you cousin Lillian. Thank you for attending Mary's funeral on audio stream. Let's talk soon.
