

Michael Arroyo

December 30, 1973 - August 21, 2022

Michael “Mike” Arroyo, 48, loving husband and father, died unexpectedly on August 21, 2022.

Mike was born in Fresno on December 30, 1973, to Joe Arroyo and Frances Contreras. As a child Mike began to show a great interest in sports, playing little league baseball which lead to a lifelong love for the game. Mike graduated from Mclane High School in 1993 and went on to become a truck driver. Eventually becoming the Receiving Coordinator at Saladino’s Inc. for 23 years. Mike loved to be outdoors, traveling, and spending time with his family. He had the gift to make others laugh. He was a kind, gentle and loving husband to his wife, Melinda. He was an amazing and devoted father to his children, Marissa and Michael. He was their hero. Mike always said “take care of your family, because that’s all you got” and that is how he lived his life. He was a pillar of strength, unity, and love.

Mike is survived by his wife, Melinda Arroyo and children, Marissa Arroyo and Michael Arroyo Jr. By his parents Joe Arroyo and Frances Contreras, brother, Jerry Arroyo, sister, Kristal Arroyo, as well as many nieces, nephews, and cousins.
