“ My brother Mikey was a rambunctious little boy 15 years younger than me. I babysat him, picked Him up from daycare, changed his diapers. More like a mother than a sister. As he grew older and I had my own family we drifted apart but he always knew he was loved.i tired telling him what a handsome guy he was and that he was young and could do anything he wanted with his life. He just couldn't make the change. I will always cherish the memories I do have of our childhood and look forward to the day we meet again ..Love you always Mike

“ I didn't know Michael extremely well. I met him a few times including last Christmas when I spent the day with him and his whole family. He was polite and respectful and made me feel very welcome. Like I belonged there. He seemed to be an all-around nice guy. She even saw me walking one time and pulled over to see if I needed a ride. It was obvious to me that he loved his family very much, and I know he will be missed. I regret not getting to know him better

“ I remember you as a child. Running around the house, laughing and having fun. You kept trying to wiggle your way into Jennifer's room by being a little charmer. You just wanted to hang with the big girls. You were innocent and sweet. You were always smiling. You will be missed dearly by all.

“ A man, my nephew , a brother, a father.... who loved his family. I remember him coming to JessicaS bridal shower to say hi to me and his Grandma Hessel. He told me he was happy to see his sister so happy and glad he could see us. I too was happy to see him, it had been a very long time. We gave each other a very long hug and said we love each other. I will miss not having the next hug.

“ I loved this kid like a brother and a son. I made it out of that scene and left you hoping one day you too would be free. We will miss you dearly and can only day dream of you now. Rest In Peace. I look forward to reuniting with anyone from the past and pray that this will be an invitation to leave your past and walk free in the Name of Jesus. I know the Way and can show it to you. God bless you all.
