“ My heart is just broken!!!! Oh my long lost friend ..... how did you, LaRue and I ever lose touch.. We were soooooooo close and did so much together. I have spent the last 45 minutes doing searches online to try and find you two..I looked for your limo company and couldn't find you guys listed. Then I typed in your full name and this is what I found...It's been years since we last saw each other, but seeing your picture over to the left .... all these fun wonderful memories came flooding back. 4 C's Business College was the best thing that could of happened to me because I met LaRue then I met you! Oh my sweet dear friend... I don't know what happened but you left this world way to soon and I wish we could have at least gone to Woodward Park for one last hoorah ! Thank you for being my friend. You are so missed ! :(

“ My little cousin Michael. You were so small when you came to Las Cruces way back then. I joined the Navy and never saw you after that, but I do know you. I know you through the love of my aunt, your mother Lucy and your father, my Uncle Tony. I know you through the love my cousins have for you. Your brother Richard, sisters Michelle, Yvette, Nora Lisa... I know you little cousin through the faith we all shared. So I find comfort in knowing that though we did not share a lot of time together in this world, we shall in the next. The faith and prayers of so many for your family and you shall open the doors in Heaven and my Uncle Tony and my Mother shall be there to greet you.
You take care up there .. and once in awhile say hello.. touch us with the falling rain, embrace with the warmth of the morning sun..

In faith and love,

“ I never understood your love of black-widows, you acted as though they were something to cuddle, (yuck)...your annoying laugh...that made me laugh immediately...I'll always remember the great time we had at KISS concert over 10 years ago...I'm comforted in knowing that you are with Daddy and no longer in any pain, it was too soon but then one is never ready to see our loved ones go. I'm also comforted in knowing you spent time with your kids. Your friends are coming forward and sharing memories of you with Mom, too bad we didn't see that side of you these last few years but that was you. Dinner, we will never have that dinner that you invited us over for...I just took for granted the time you were here with us...please silence your sneeze up there , always obnoxiously loud, :) Michael embrace the Light (you always had to do the opposite of what you were told) but seriously, God bless you and be at peace...we will miss you Michael.

“ I will never forget your sense of humor, as warped as it often was. I will remember our friendship and your infectious smile. I pray that you are at peace in the loving arms of our Lord, Jesus Christ. I also pray that your family will find peace, knowing that you are in the hands of God. One day, we will meet again.
