Miguel Torres Aviles

Miguel Torres Aviles was born on September 29, 1930 to Epigmenio Torres and Maria de la Luz Aviles Reyes in Manuel Doblado, Guanajuato, Mexico. He was raised on a ranch with his siblings; 3 brothers and 5 sisters. Growing up he spent half his time assisting his parents in the meat locker and helping with chores on the cattle ranch. He did that for many years. While he was attending school, we started for a leather smith. As he grew his experience, he eventually opened his own shop. At the age of 25 he then met the love of his life, Maria Luz Torres Fernandez. They were soon married June 8, 1955. They started their family in Manuel Doblado, Guanajuato, Mexico with their 3 eldest sons. After the closed shop he then opened a restaurant where the family then relocated to Ensenada, Mexico. The family grew the family to have a total of 11 children. Miguel then moved his family in 1978 to small town Huron, CA. Where he was working for Harris Ranch as a Dishwasher. After his time at Harris Ranch, he moved on to different opportunities. He worked in the fields and had a number of responsibilities depending on the time of the year. After 5 years the family then relocated to Coalinga, CA. Where he lived for the rest of his life and with along with his family. Continuing to work in the fields, he eventually retired at the 62 and enjoyed trips to Mexico, being around family and watching his grandchildren grow up.
