“ My Dearest Sister,

There are no words that could truly capture how much you meant to me. You were not just my sister, but my partner in this journey of sisterhood and motherhood. Together, we shared the kind of bond that cannot be broken, and you were always there to offer love, strength, and understanding.

You fought with such courage through your cancer battle, a true warrior in every sense of the way, and your love for your family never wavered. Watching you become a mother and then an aunt for the first time with Henry and then with Maxie brought such joy to my heart and yours — your love for your family was so pure, and we will always cherish that memory of you.

You will be missed more than words can express, but I find comfort in knowing that you are now at peace. Our family is forever changed but also better because of you, your love and spirit will live on in all of us.

There will never be another you, but I hope you found comfort in knowing that you left Aaliyah, Lucas and baby Lino in good hands. We will forever honor you by living life to the fullest and by loving your babies like you did.

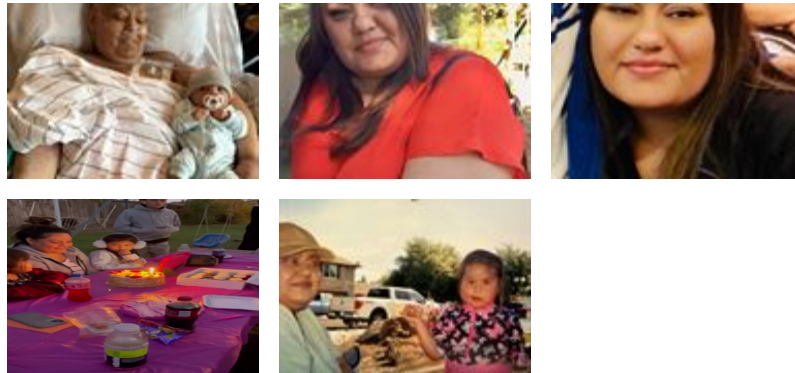

Rest in peace my beautiful sister. You will never be forgotten. I love you 💕💕

“ I am deeply sorry for your loss. As I would call her "My Monica" was such an amazing person, full of kindness and warmth. I feel truly blessed to have shared time with her and will always treasure those memories. She truly showed me how to enjoy our days and be grateful wholeheartedly. Knowing I could pick up the phone at work and hear her voice gave me great peace...My heart goes out to your family during this difficult time. . Grace Groag with her Valley Children's Family

“ My beautiful sister. It still doesn't seem real that you are no longer here with us. I thought losing grandma and dad was rough but losing you is so much harder. For 40 years I've had a life long best friend. Us siblings were kept very close and into adulthood we all remained close. With you gone it's like a piece of the puzzle is missing. I will forever miss your random phone calls to just check in. I'm going to miss our talks and all the fun times we had making fun of each other. You were the best big sister anyone could ask for. You were our leader, our protector and always showed us all so much love. You are the strongest person I know and you fought until the very end. Sister just know that I love you so much and will treasure every memory I have of you.
