Monica Valdez Salazar

December 25, 1934 – June 11, 2017

Monica V. Salazar was born on December 25, 1934 in El Paso, Texas to the parents of Gilbert and Angela (Molina) Valdez. She passed away on Sunday, June 11, 2017 peacefully with her loving family by her side. Monica was 82 years old.

Monica's parents moved the family to California on or about 1940, to work the agriculture fields as migrant farm workers. She is preceded in death by her parents, her brothers Gilbert and David, and her great-granddaughter Samantha. Monica spent 11 years working as a seamstress at the downtown Holiday Inn, but the majority of her life was spent as a stay at home mom and homemaker.

Monica is survived by her five children: Gloria Valdez Ferrer, Mary Esther Salazar, Margaret Salazar, Eleanor Salazar, David Valdez; she also is survived by 10 grandchildren, 22 great-grandchildren; her sister Stella Mange and brothers Joe, Al, Victor, Ernie, Jesse and Tom Valdez and their families. Monica's family will Celebrate her Life on Thursday, June 15 from 5:00 to 8:00 pm at the Chapel of Light Funeral Home and with a Mass of Christian Burial on Friday, June 16 at 10:30 am, St. John's Cathedral; interment at Belmont Memorial Park immediately following.
