“ RIP Nathan, my memories of you are as a little boy riding up on your bicycle. However, you and my Brother crossed paths often, he would always tell me when you two saw one another. I'm sorry you are gone at 37, I guess God had other plans.

I know you were your Mom's pride and joy, she always mentioned you with a smile. Rest easy Nathan in the arms of Jesus now.

*Your Cousin,
Misty*
