Neil Camin passed away peacefully at home with family at bedside on March 5, 2017. He was born in 1945, to Ruth and Frank Camin of Fresno, CA. Neil attended Roosevelt High School and Fresno City College. Neil always had the gift of gab and never met a stranger. So it was appropriate that he became a salesman. He sold P.V.C. pipe for many years. He loved to hike in the mountains, ride recumbent bikes, and tinker in the garage. Neil also loved to travel the world as well as the United States. He was married 45 years to Kathy Johnson and had two wonderful children, Darin Camin and his wife Cara, Krista Furuta and husband Mark; three grandsons, Adrian, Oliver, and Sam; and three siblings, Albert Camin, Peggy Winter, and Mary Camin. Neil will be miss by many and never forgotten.
