

Nichole Desiree Ortega

January 7, 1994 - June 16, 2015

We knew little that morning God was to call your name. In life we loved you dearly, in death we do the same. It broke our hearts to lose you, you did not go alone. For part of us went with you, the day God called you home. You left us beautiful memories, your love is still our guide, and though we cannot see you, you are always at our side. Our family chain is broken and nothing seems the same, But as God calls us one by one, the chain will link again.

Loving and caring daughter, granddaughter, sister, niece and cousin...

She is survived by her grandmother Joanna Spivey; mother Lisa Carbajal; her "two dads" as she would say, Jason Carbajal and Eddie Ortega; brother Eddie Ortega and sister-in-law Teresa; two nieces and three nephews, Harmony, Angelo, Athena, Skylar and Zayden.

“ When I was on vacation in 8th grade, Lisa and Jason would ask If I can watch Nichole. It was kind of funny. We have a bowl of cereal, then come up with weird stuff. Nichole like the idea of finding a station which had no service. So she put the tv loud and start screaming to the irritated noise. We found soo much channels to scream to. The other is she didnt have dolls or barbies. So she found color pencils, we play people. Weird and awkward but it made time pass by. Nichole liked hanginf out with me, tried to play red, light green light. She used the color yellow in the game so she could be late lol. Used to sit and watch her eat, then take off home. Miss those fun times ... Love you Cousin ...

“ Nichole was such a kind hearted person. She was so shy and quite, getting a sentence out of her was cute and funny. I remember talking to her about school, I was so proud of her when she graduated High School, even more proud that she was accepted into Fresno State. I remember when my Mother was in the hospital, Nichole drove from Fresno to Modesto just to say goodbye; she was only 20 years old making that drive by herself truly tells you what an Special and extraordinary young lady she was. NICHOLE I LOVE YOU, GOD IS TRULY GETTING AN ANGEL!

“ As a child, my granddaughter, Nichole was shy and tentative until she got to know me. Over several years, during her visits from Kentucky, and after she decided to call Cali home for good, we finally got to know each other real well. We talked, laughed and shared our hopes and dreams. She was still a little tentative and shy but I found if I made her laugh she would open up and I couldn't stop her. In 2012 we started college together. Against the odds and adversity, she was a bright kid and she had a plan. Every single time I saw her she had a big smile for me. I'm not sure if she understood it but I felt her love for me. Maybe it's because she felt my love for Jason and Lisa. I know she adored Jason like no other. Her smile was mischievous and special and will stay etched in my memory forever. I find solace and peace that she is free from this wicked world's harm now, but I will miss her until the day we meet again. I'll never forget what a special kid she was. I love you and will miss you sweet Nichole. From your Abuelo Nick Carbajal
