

Ofelia Moreno

July 31, 1932 - November 18, 2020

Ofelia Moreno, 88.

July 31, 1932- November 18, 2020

Fresno, CA.

Ofelia passed away peacefully at home surrounded by her loving family. She is preceded in death by her late husband, Vicente Moreno and 4 late grandchildren, and has 12 children. Jesse Moreno and wife, Lydia Moreno, Guadalupe Varela Mendez and husband, Gilbert Mendez, Luis Moreno, Maria Moreno, Jose Moreno, Estella De Los Santos and husband, David De Los Santos, Vicente Moreno Jr., Noemi Moreno, Ester De La Cruz, Esteban Moreno, Elva Romero and husband, Gabriel Romero, and Irene Moreno and her 3 sisters, Jovita Rivera of Texas, Hilda Martinez of Fresno and Antonia Rayes of Fresno. She was loved by all her 38 grandchildren, 90 great-grandchildren. Our mom was a fun, loving woman, whom was loved by all those she met. She loved going to the Fresno Fair and the Indian Casinos every chance she got. She was a homemaker who loved a great party and loved to dance. She loved her Dallas Cowboys and was grateful to meet Tony Romo and Charles Haley, who gave her a Big Fat Kiss on her 80th birthday. She also Loved traveling to McAllen, Texas where she spent months at a time with her sister Jovita and her family. She also Loved traveling to Chicago with extended family. We couldn't get her back fast enough. May our Mother Rest in Peace. She will be greatly missed.

“ My mama was one in a million. She loved going to the casino 🎰. She loved meatloaf . Her favorite football team were The Dallas Cowboys and Tony Romo whom she got his autograph when he and the Cowboys were in Ventura for spring training .My mama, my daughter Natalie, my son in law Giovanni and me were able to go inside the field with Cowboys thanks to my sister Elva who with her connections got us tickets. My mama was so happy. I know she's in heaven and looking down on us. Miss her so so much 😭
